

MEET THE GIRLS HOPING TO WIN THE

Clara Cannon

Age: 17
Location: Glasgow
This is my first ever modelling experience as I was stopped in Edinburgh Galleries and asked to participate in the Scotland's New Face competition. It has been a fantastic opportunity and I'd love to make the final four.

Caitlin McCulloch

Age: 16
Location: West Dunbartonshire
This is the first modelling competition I have ever entered so to make it this far is amazing. I applied for Scotland's New Face online and the whole experience has been great. It is such a good opportunity for Scotland's talent to be noticed."

Fern Calderwood

Age: 16
Location: Glasgow
I'm very excited to have made the top 20 of Scotland's New Face. It's always been a dream of mine to be a model and I'm pleased to have made it this far. It's been a great achievement. To win the title would be fantastic.

Lucie Stevenson

Age: 17
Location: Falkirk
It was my brother who pointed out the Scotland's New Face competition in the newspaper and encouraged me to enter. The whole experience has been great fun and I have thoroughly enjoyed meeting the other girls. I'm delighted to have made it this far.

Jamie Lee Poppe

Age: 16
Location: Ayrshire
I have always aspired to be a model and a successful business woman. The Scotland's New Face competition has provided me with the first stepping stone I need to get my foot in the door of modeling, for which I am very grateful. It really has been a dream come true.

MEET the first 10 finalists hoping to follow in the footsteps of supermodels Kirsty Hume and Stella Tennant in the Scotland's New Face 2010 competition.

The search has been in full swing for weeks now and a total of 290 finalists have been picked from the hundreds of stunning girls who entered online or through our roadshows across the country.

The remaining 10 hopefuls will be revealed in the Daily Record next week.

Tessa Hartmann, founder and chairman of the Scottish Fashion Awards and one of the Scotland's New Face 2010 selection panel, said: "It is a tough competition as next week's set of 10 girls are of an equally high calibre so I am looking forward to see who is picked for the final four."

The judging panel, which also includes Carol Kane, boss of fashion website Boohoo, Anna
