Scotland's New Face

TOMORROW is your last chance to be spotted by our Scotland's New Face judges.

The team will meet wannabe catwalk queens at the final roadshow at The Centre in Livingston.

They will collect applications from any girls over the age of 16 who think they have what it takes to follow last year's winner Christina Chalk.

The girl crowned Scotland's New

Face at the Scottish Fashion Awards will win great prizes, including the chance to be represented by modelling agency Storm and the use of a Smart car for 12 months.

All applicants should be at least 5ft 8in.

Anyone interested should bring along a photo of themselves with their personal details on the back between 2pm and 3pm.
